Football Camp at the U

This summer, the University High Football coaches will hold a football camp for players entering grades 2-5. This camp will focus on the basic fundamentals of offense and defense that will improve the camper's skills in the game of football. Campers will learn from their coaches the right way to play the game in a fun and enjoyable atmosphere. The camp will also provide the opportunity to compete in flag football games and in an obstacle course. Please fill out the form below & mail back to:
