IN SUMMER...

Leadership Conference is held annually on the LSU campus and is attended by delegates from all over the state of Louisiana. The two one-week sessions offer students the opportunity to gain valuable experience in such fields as Yearbook, Newspaper, Library, Speech, and Recreation which will prove invaluable when they return to school in the fall.

LEADERSHIP

Susan Makler, Jimmy Bollinger, Jan Reinberg, Lonnie Collette.

PELICAN STATE

Girls and boys representing every high school in Louisiana gather over the summer on the LSU campus to form mythical state, parish, and city governments. The objective of Pelican Boy's and Girl's State is to educate young people in the ways of American citizenship. This is done to the extent of electing state officials, as in true city governments. The representatives from University High are selected from the Junior Class.

How about that, we're all up together!

That football sponsor is always thinking about the game!!

On the way to the bon fire.

Is he serious, are we really on Candid Camera????

Hi, Mom!

Strike up the band!

Hey! Who filled this ball with helium?

All right team, let's have a second-half comeback!!!

Robert's boots an extra point for another victory.

Toughest team we've had in years...

HOORAY! WE'RE THROUGH!

Although we are glad it is all over, we cannot help but feel a little sad about it at the same time. Editing the CUB has been an unforgettable experience—trying at times, but rewarding in the outcome. It is unnecessary to say that we learned a lot this year, in fact, we find it hard to believe we knew so little about yearbooks when we started.

Without the assistance of the many people who helped us, the CUB would probably not have been published. We want to thank our staff Adviser, Mrs. Whistfield Vick, for being so patient and confident. Mrs. Louise Ward and the Business Staff, Dr. J. Q. Long, our photography advisor, Bill Monroe, our Staff Photographer, the Editorial Staff, and the many people who donated pictures to us for use in the CUB.
