LIFE EXPERIENCES,

Sometimes our accomplishments astound even ourselves... "Nah, eat your heart out!"

Going through life we often experience things that, whether good or bad, seem to work out for the best. With the coming of new faculty members, students, and regulations, we have had quite an exciting year. The people who became a part of our school this year have floored it with new ways of thinking. The longer class periods and shorter lunch hours have given us the chance to learn more about the things around us here and now and the things far away and in the future. With tragic incidents, such as the burning of our elementary school, we have found how cooperation, small sacrifices, and a little understanding can help us, along with others, to become better people. These things, and also new sports teams for girls, senior privilege restrictions, and several other items have given us more responsibilities and challenges and caused this school year to be... "One of the best school years U-High has ever had..."

"Listen, nobody's perfect..."

Good or Bad...

As soon as one episode is over, there's always someone who's ready and waiting to begin another adventure.

What often happens when certain deadlines or expectations aren't met.

"Things are constantly happening over there."

“All for the Best!”

After the free, the elementary school students get a taste of what high school classes and classrooms are like.

Things aren’t always as innocent as they seem.

Sometimes, the Cub always manages to be in too many things.

One could definitely say that life has its ups and downs.
“Even though our Bonfire was held in the grip, I still had a terrific time.”

“T’m really glad we got to go see King Tut this year!”

Just because the Bonfire was held in the gym and the Senior Activity Room was taken over by the eighth grade, there was no reason for the students at U-High to sit around and moe. We still found a way to have fun! A visit to New Orleans to see King Tut was the highlight of the year.

This year the students at U-High realized that there were many ways to have fun! Some students enjoyed decorating for Homecoming, while others discovered that a trip to McDonald’s could easily be made within an hour.

Just as no two people are alike, so no two school years are alike. And in the field of fun, this year was no exception.
King Tut!!

Is it Ryan, Dot and Vivian?
See-saw, you're gonna fall!

This year the students of University High along with parents and teachers took a trip to New Orleans. What's down there? Well, a once in a lifetime exhibit — an exhibit of the Egyptian boy king, King Tut, whose riches surpass the imagination.

Our eyes were opened wide and mouths agape at the wonder and beauty of the King's riches.

The exhibit wasn't the only activity on the agenda. The students took a picnic lunch, and everyone relaxed and enjoyed the peaceful atmosphere.

The excursion was wrapped up by a stop at Baskin-Robbins:
The trip back was one of quiet solitude, because wouldn't you be sleepy if you had waked up at 5:00 in the morning?

The Fire!!

On October 16, 1971, at 2:00 a.m. fire engines came screaming down vanity road headed toward University High. The sky was aglow and the flames shot up menacingly as the firemen made their way to school to try to control the fire.

After a long and tiring battle, the firemen managed to extinguish the flames leaving only ashes, brick walls, and twisted steel where the elementary wing once stood. Luckily, the high school was saved.

The student body and the faculty joined together to hose the elementary students and carry on the high school as usual. Without this team effort, the turmoil would have been more destructive to the school than the ashes and smoke.
U-High students at their best . . .

Cool Day was a HIT!!!

Wow! If only she could go out with me.

Just Hanging Around!

To waste time and to pass time are two things U-High students know how to do best. Many activities go on during the lunch hour. Some of the highlights are feasting for lunch, gossiping, copying homework, singing charts, and doing just about anything else you can think of. There’s never a dull minute, because there’s always something to do. U-High students live to “just hang around.”

Cubbie Capers!

What is all the excitement about? Cubbie Capers! It's a week full of fun and surprises. Each class competes in decorating, cheering, and performing a skit, for the title of "winner." As a whole it was a big success. A roar of excitement was heard from E. But Dr. Fox announced the class as the winners. This class not only received a trophy but showed GREAT CUB SPIRIT!!!!!
Over A Hundred Signs Were Burned...

This year's Homecoming was an exciting one filled with many events and activities. The Homecoming Supper, the Homecoming Pep Breakfast, and the Homecoming Dance were just three of the traditional events that the students were involved in during the week of Homecoming. This year's Homecoming was a little bit different though. Because of fire that destroyed the elementary school building on the Sunday before Homecoming, the traditional Bonfire was not held on the elementary playground as it has been every year. However, the cheerleaders painted a bonfire, and the pep rally on Thursday night after the Homecoming Supper was held in the gym instead of on the playground.

Despite the fact that there was no real bonfire, spirits were high and everyone helped cheer the U-High Cubs on to a great victory over the Sunshine Tigers!

But Our Spirit Was Untouched!!

Our Band boosted the Cubs on to another Homecoming victory!

“Of course the Seniors really won Spirit Week. No one else even came close.

“I think the Marching Band has just as much spirit as anyone else.”

Boosters, Majorettes, Dance Group, and Cheerleaders were just a few of the people who helped to cheer the Cubs on to another winning season. Although there was only one winter in Spirit Week, each person should be commended on his outstanding spirit shown throughout the year.

Many new things happened in the category of Spirit. Three new Majorettes were chosen. Boosters enjoyed new uniforms, Majorettes and Dance Group initiated new members, and in their old uniforms for new ones, and, of course, the Pep Band boosted the Cubs on with new songs.

Although no one likes to see the old things thrown out, everyone enjoys knowing that new and better things will take their place.
The Marching Band '78

The Marching Band was small this year, but the numbers were full of spirit and ready to perform at the games. They played new tunes such as "Boogie Fever," "Get Up and Boogie," and everyone's favorite, the "Theme from Rocky." "Evergreen" was played for the Homecoming Coat. Traditionals including "Smoke on the Water" and "The Horse" were also played.

A successful halftime show!

Some of the Marching Band members also participated in the Pep Band.
The Majorettes!

The Majorettes did a fantastic job this year as they twisted to the big hits such as "Rocky," "Boogie Fever," "Taking Care of Business," and "Smoke on the Water." The Episcopal game face were really fired up when the majorettes twirled their batons, an act which really added to the halftime show. Looking good was a lot of hard work for the majorettes this year as they practiced over one hundred and fifty hours to perfect the shows.

The Majorettes prepare to perform before the U-High fans.

Cathy Dagle, Donna Wales and Dawn Harris start off routine on 'Taking Care of Business.'

The Pep Band Jams!

The Pep Band this year really put spirit into the pep rallies and the pep breakfast. Sharon Sale, the drum major, directed the group in many new hits such as "Rocky," "Boogie Fever," and "Get up and Boogie." The band also played many U-High favorites including "The Horse," "Hawaii Five-O" and "On With U-Hi." Their playing was a great asset throughout the entire year.

Cheerleaders! Cheerleaders!! Cheerleaders!!!

In February 22 of the '77 year,
Six girls were elected to cheer.
Laura, Diane, and Mary Jane, too;
Thea, Mickey, Carolyn—all new.

In June they were excited
As they ventured off to camp.
With spirit sticks and uniforms
The squad returned a champ!
To start the school year off right
They had—the very first day
A spirit leader (skirt) was
Superior in every way.
Their spirits soared, bubbled up
When came the football season.
If they needed help to cheer about
The Dubs gave them their reason.
Sisters' enthusiasm at football time
Moved right to basketball spirit:
Show your Dubs who are selling for
"Mom ya'll, let's bear it!"
Pops, nudes, games, and cheering times
Have now come to an end.
A more spirited, active, happy time.
These cheerleaders could never spend.

Spirit Steppers Dance

This year's dance group was the smallest ever in the history of University High School, having only six members, four of whom were new. "Rocky," "Get Up and Boogie," "Taking Care of Business," and the ever faithful "Horse" were some of the songs the Spirit Steppers stepped to this year. Work this year started early as usual with camp at Louisiana Tech for some of the group. In addition to dancing at all home games, the girls danced occasionally at pep rallies and basketball games. Captain Nan Hamman coordinated the group finances, though the other members of the group, Cheryl Wood, Lee Ann Whitehurst, Bethy Hall, Dorothy Nugent, and Colleen Daniel, did contribute steps. One famous Spirit Stepper quote says it all: "Because I said so!"

Contrary to popular belief, the dance group does work occasionally.

Sponsors Quickkick

Every day after school we go to Pleasant Hall and fill up an ice chest or two with ice, then rush back to school, make tasty quick kick, and line up the glasses in neat little rows. Then we wait for the MCB! We make locker notes, hand out favors at the pep rally, plan two huge banquets, and are responsible for season ticket sales. It may seem like a lot of work, but we love every minute of it!

Finally, what are Boosters? Boosters are those thirty-three girls who, at halftime, in the van, bring hot chocolate to ball games in the winter, and cheer with all their might for the University High Cubs!

The Boosters did their best at all the fall games. Thanks to Miss Shayne for her efforts this year. For if they messed up, they had "Betty-Woman" Tracy and Co. (Margaret G., Leslie K., Mary Kate, Ann C., Ellie Q., and Susan V.) to console with. Practices after school, before parties, and the addition of new members made the year 1977-78 one of their best!

Whether sun, sleet, or hail
The Booster spirit will never fail.
We had the spirit when it was needed
To win the game when the battle was hosted.

Boosters practiced extra hard after school.

SPORTS

The Yearbook Staff interviewed various students and got their reactions to the new girls' volleyball team and other sport events that took place this past year. "What do you think of the girls' volleyball team?" "I think it's a fantastic change for U-HIGH. I think we really ought to support the team because if we don't, who will?"

"What did you enjoy about the football season this year?" "Really? Besides the after-parties, I really enjoyed watching all the guys work so well together and get so fired up about the games."

"The Cross Country team has a hard act to follow this year," said one member, "but we've got a pretty good chance of being State Champs again."

There are no secrets to sports that students participate in. There are tennis and swimming teams, track and basketball. Each has its special place.
The 1977 Cubs

The mighty U-High Cubs travelled across the river to play the CHSPC Hornets in the ever-tough Fort Allen Jamboree. The game began with an impressive UHS offense dominating the first half of play, but penalties and a lack of time netted any UHS score. The second half was a complete turn around from the first half as the Hornets dominated offensively while UHS had to rely on its defense to stay in the ball game. The Hornets threatened to score, but an impenetrable Cub defense held them back. Though no one knew it at that time, this marked the birth of the Brick House.

STATISTICIANS:

UHS vs. PRIDE
September 9, 1977

The U-High "Brick House" defense slammed the door shut on the Pride offense, limiting the Panthers to a meager five yards and no first downs in total offense. The Cubs stopped cold the Panther rushing game which netted minus four yards on the ground. The U-High ground attack was also very impressive, rolling up a total of 260 yards and 34 points. Jeff "Dr. P." was the workhorse for the Cubs gaining 132 yards to the night. The U-High scoring machine moved the ball and scored almost at will as Eddie Hardisty, Gray Barrow, Jeff Poydras, Brett Bostock, and Nathan Roberts each scored once for the Cubs to secure the first victory of the year.
Spirit Carries Cubs To Victories

UHS vs. WHITE CASTLE
September 16, 1977
The White Castle Bulldogs and their all-purpose athlete, Mark Briner, came to town with vengeance on their mind to hand the Cubs their first setback of the season. One bright spot for the Cubs came on a fourth and passing situation for the Bulldogs. Gary Barrow received the punt on his own five-yard line where he made a spectacular return all the way to the White Castle 3. Unfortunately for the Cubs, a clip nullified the run and brought the ball back to the Bulldog 7. The Cubs then put together a drive to the White Castle nine but came up short on a fourth and one on the short end of a 17-6 score.

UHS vs. BRUSLY
September 23, 1977
Our once feared Campus Cubs trekked once more across the river for the clash with the Brusly Panthers. The U-High Cubs could complete only two passes all night, both for touchdowns, but they were all that was needed as the Cubs won it 14-0. Although Cub quarterback Brett Furr’s passing provided both TD’s, it was U-High’s powerful ground attack that moved the ball for the Cubs. The Panthers could threaten but twice all night, but two touchdown-saving tackles off long Panther runs and a solid Cub defense stopped the Panthers short.

UHS vs. HANSON
September 30, 1977
U-High, led by a second-string backfield, upended the defending Class A State Champions from Franklin. Big play defense was the name of the game as Brent Barkston blocked a punt and intercepted a pass. Sam Morrison, attempting to set Tiger records for pass receiving, intercepted two stray Tiger passes. While trailing just 6-0 in the first half, the visitors had an opportunity develop as the Cubs managed to fumble the ball away on their 22. Penalties and a tough defensive line, however, pushed the Tigers back to the 24-yard line where they lost the ball on downs. Nathan Roberts scored the only points of the night as our Dalrymple Drive dwellers went on to win it 12-0.

UHS vs. OPEN DATE
October 7, 1977
The Cubs were looking for a victory over the always-tough Open Date Jaguars in the friendly confines of Berne Moore Stadium, but as the game progressed, it turned into another defensive struggle. Penalties killed any chances of a score for either team, and the game once again ended in a scoreless tie, keeping the series dead even at 19-12-62.
UHS vs. WEST ST. JOHN
October 14, 1977

It was the big game of the year as the Cubs traveled south to Cooke to meet W. St. John. The Cubs were the first to draw blood as Gray Burrow made the first TD. At the beginning of the third quarter, U-High was driving to a touchdown with one point lead. But a controversial call by the referee left U-High without a TD, and the Rams had the ball on the twenty. A few plays later West St. John scored on a sixty-six yard bomb to give the Rams the victory.

UHS vs. ST. JOHN
October 28, 1977

With just 3:2 left in the game Eric Swanson kicked a 30-yard field goal to give the Cubs a 3-0 victory over St. John. The game seemed destined to end in a scoreless deadlock as Swanson missed his first field goal attempt. At that point there was just under eight minutes left in the ball game. St. John took over on its own 30 after the missed field goal attempt and managed to lose ten yards on an exchange of fumbles. The Eagles could not move the ball and were forced to punt. However, the St. John punter fumbled the snap and Alon Hancock was there to make the tackle at the St. John seven. From there U-High could gain only four yards on three plays, but on fourth down Swanson came through with the game-winning field goal. After the kickoff St. John advanced to the U-High 37, but only last-minute St. John hopes for victory were dashed when Eric Abraham came up with a key interception with just 26 left on the clock.

UHS vs. SUNSHINE
October 21, 1977

University High used a powerful rushing attack that never seemed to stop as the Cubs rolled up 29 points to plaster the hapless Sunshine Tigers. Even though the Tigers outgained the Cubs in total offense, it was late into the fourth quarter before Sunshine could muster a score. Meanwhile the Cubs first scored on a 25-yard touchdown pass to fullback Eddie Honeck. The Cubs scored just minutes later after Victor Giurini recovered the Tiger fumble. The Cubs' final tally of the night came with just under a minute to play. Gray Burrow picked up yet another Tiger fumble, this time on the University one, and raced 99 yards for the score.

UHS vs. CHANEYVILLE
November 4, 1977

U-High took a rest from its district schedule to play the Chaneyville Dragons. The U-High offense was just too much for the Dragons' defense. Jeff Paybrass rushed in for two scores, and Ted Hasten caught two touchdown passes for the Cubs as they went on to win 26-14.

Girls' Volleyball Comes to UNIVERSITY HIGH!

“Are you gonna try out for the Volleyball team?”

“Yes, I think it is great that we finally get girls' sports here!”

These and other similar remarks could be heard when everyone found out about the Girls' Volleyball team. The captains were Allison Behinger, Varsity Captain, and Melinda Behinger, B. Varsity Captain. The team had a slow start but overcame insurmountable odds to place third in district. In addition, Christy Clark was chosen all-district player.

Cross Country Wins Again!!!!!!

Winning the State High School Cross Country Meet has become a tradition for University High. The Cubs braved a cold, windy day on the back-nine of the LSU golf course to add another to the string of State Meet victories. The mighty Cub harriers collected their fifth state championship on a day which was not fit to watch a state meet, much less run in one. The pace was slow due to a strong headwind, but this fact did not dim the spirit of the Cub runners. They continued their dominance of Class A Cross Country which began when the first Cub team was formed. University quickly found its toughest Class A competition in cross-town rival, Episcopal. The Cubs knew from the previous year that Episcopal had a respectable team, and they rose to meet the challenge. University High won its first District title by easily beating Episcopal by a score of 22 to 35 lowest score wins in Cross Country. The State Meet finally arrived on December 9 to see U-High blow out Episcopal by a score of 23 to 49. The Cubs were led by Sophomore Mark Newman, who finished second. U-High placed four runners in the top five with Seniors Jim Hall and Mike Vickers. Junior Charlie Patterson finishing 3rd, 4th, 5th respectively. Eric Abraham rounded out the Cubs’ placing 9th, with Freshman Reed Richeard taking 11th and Allan Morris placing 12th. Jim Hall was elected by the team as captain. Mark Newman was chosen member of the All-Parash team, which is made up of runners of all classifications and selected by the coaches.

Girls’ Basketball

Whether you believe boys are the only ones who can play basketball or not, this year University High gave the girls a chance to challenge that belief. Our girls’ team made its opening debut before a gym full of Gill and Rebel fans. The first game proved to be the challenge that the girls needed to discover their basketball abilities. With each game, the girls became more and more skilled in the fundamentals of basketball. By the middle of the season, our girls were as serious about basketball as any athlete is about his sport. The team spent one and a half hours every day after school practicing and learning new skills. Mrs. Brunaco and Miss Young both realize that to master any sport takes a lot of hard work and determination. The girls also realize that basketball is a lot of hard work, and in many ways it has its rewards. Now when the fans see black and gold uniforms, they can see new faces and shapelier legs. Congratulations, girls, for proving to be outstanding athletes as well as basketball players.

The girls huddle together after playing a nice quarter.

Chore up, Gillia, We're winning the game.

Hands up, everybody. Here comes the ball.

The fighting Cubs took to the court in fine fashion this season. They sported a 6-6 record before district play began, facing many quad-A and triple-A opponents. Coach Gerald Farr's '77-78 Cubs set their sights high and strove to reach them. The Cubchester district 8-A play in search of a playoff berth and clinched it after beating arch-rival Piscataqua 58-55 in the second round of district play. D'High was led by Seniors Gray Barlow, Mike Vickers, Capt. Dedric Norris and Juniors Brett Furt and Eric Soussman. The Cubs have high hopes for an excellent showing in the state playoffs as they are having one of their finest seasons.

GROUPS

"I wish the best of luck to all new club presidents. They'll need it.

"I feel that every group should help make University High the number one school in the state!"

Everybody is a star, and this year everybody got to do his own thing in the group of his choice. All clubs were for the artist, P.H.A. for the cockt, and a host of other groups to make everyone's fancy.

All clubs did their absolute best to make the 1977-78 school year one of the best. Although new presidents were heading the various clubs, the main idea of serving people was still kept alive.

Most clubs kept their old ideas of money-making projects, but new sponsors, new friends, and new memories were a few of the changes club members will never forget.

Hi-Y is an organization dedicated to serving both University High and the community. Members of the club help promote school spirit this year by selling spirit buttons for many of the important football and basketball games. They also worked long hours helping such organizations as The Spirit of Baton Rouge, Inc., and Operation Upgrade. Members also became experts at cleaning up, school clean-up, stadium clean-up, etc.

Hi-Y is not an all-work-no-play club. During the summer there is the annual ski party at Folsom Lake. In the spring the members have the annual crawfish boil and in the winter the Christmas party.

Key Club is an organization which is dedicated to serving both school and community. A few of the many projects the hard working members perform for U-High are school clean-up, stadium clean up, and building the Homecoming Bonfire. This year Key Clubbers participate in a number of projects on the community level, such as the Kiwanis Christmas Tree sales, the Jerry Lewis MDA Telethon, and Barbecues.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America was once again a large and strong club. President Margaret Gardiner had big plans for the club and carried them out quite well. F.H.A. sponsored the Homecoming Pep Breakfast and the Country Kitchen at Sodie Harriken. Everyone had fun at the Kick-Off Party, the Happy Un-Birthday Party, and the Christmas night meeting. The club sold raffle tickets for the annual end-of-the-year trip.

FBLA Ventures Out

F.B.L.A. began the year enthusiastically with a kick-off party in August. Because of all of the F.B.L.A. members' great participation this year, the club helped make someone's Thanksgiving a little happier by giving them a Thanksgiving basket of food. In January, members attended to F.B.L.A. district convention in Cozales and in March participated in the state convention in Baton Rouge. F.B.L.A. also ventured out in a new way this year as the members participated in a March of Dimes service project. As always, there was the annual candy drive. Instead of Heath bars, F.B.L.A. sold M&M's and Reese's candy this year. At the Honor's Day assembly, F.B.L.A. presented its award to the outstanding freshman boy and girl. F.B.L.A. had an exciting and successful year under the guidance of Mrs. Linda Hall, club sponsor.

Art Club Rebuilds Art Department

Art Club was responsible for decorating the homecoming stands in which the homecoming court was seated. Also, the members decorated for the Winter Formal in February. During the fall, Art Club took a field trip around the Baton Rouge area, and in March the members took an exciting trip to Texas. Art Club members added new fund-raising projects to their list this year as they hoped to raise enough money to replace some of the art items which were lost in the fire. Art Club took orders and painted large billboard-size Christmas cards for people's yard decorations. Mr. Davis and the whole art department lost a lot in the fire, but that didn't stop Mr. Davis from serving as a great sponsor of Art Club.

Collage Staff

The Collage Staff of 1977-78 began work in January on the 1978 issue. Collage is a University High School literary journal which contains poems, short stories, sonnets, essays, and art work by both junior high and senior high school students. The College is distributed to all students in grades 7-12 in May, when the yearbook is distributed. This year's staff was led by Leslie Roberts and Laura Simmons, who served as co-editors. We are also grateful to Miss Mary Hair who serves as the sponsor for the publishing of Collage.

Student Council Gives Leadership to the School

Student Council members working hard training for the Homecoming Supper.

The University High Student Council worked diligently to make our school better this year. Student Council flourished under the competent leadership of Nancy Jo Roberts, who served as president for the 77-78 year. The council planned three dances — Homecoming, Eighth Grade, and the Winter Formal. The Student Council officers attended L.A.S.C. convention in Lafayette. University High was elected district vice-president. University High Student Council held a district workshop in April. The workshop was open to all high school student councils in the district.

Brent has just been told that he gets to do the morning announcements.

"What class has the cutest guys?"
"The Freshmen."
"Of course the Seniors."
"What about the cutest girls?"
"I think they are all cute."

No matter what question was posed there were as many different answers as there were people. But there is one thing everyone agreed upon, and that is, the 1977-78 school year was one of the best school years ever.

The Seventh Graders were finally able to have lookers. Eighth Graders enjoyed being the "Seniors" of Junior High. The Freshmen experienced the agonies and delights of belonging in high school. Sophomores now weren't the last ones to eat. The Juniors enjoyed knowing that they had only two more years to go. And of course, the 1978 Seniors made their last year a year of everlasting memories.

With new students, classes, teachers, and miles this year gave everyone a taste of what it commonly called "change."
Faculty 78!

Mr. Tucker models his ten-sole suit. Can Mrs. Aetor find the flaw?

Halloween infected the faculty, too. Mrs. Truss, Dr. Fox, and Mrs. Danper really gave us a scare. And who was the mystery guy?

Fresh from Florida, Mrs. Caprio enjoys the snow.

Dr. Haas is really into Shakespeare!

We’re Big Stuff Now

The junior high students were very involved this year in many activities. Ten Eighth Graders and five Seventh Graders were chosen to represent the school in the Louisiana State Y MCA Youth legislature. Junior high students went to New Orleans to see the King Tut exhibit. They enjoyed the trip thoroughly. Eight-B won Cubie Capers. Of the whole, junior high students enjoyed the school year.

Some students are more interested in Cub photographers than in English class.

This has been a very exciting year for the Seventh Graders. Half of the students had never attended University High before. They had to get to know many new students and a new school. Changing classes and teachers every hour took a lot of getting used to. The Seventh Graders participated in Cubbie Capers for the first time. Unfortunatel y they lost to an eighth-grade class. They also traveled to New Orleans to see the King Tut exhibit. 1977-78 was a very busy year filled with interesting activities and looking ahead.

Eighth Graders Prepare for High School

This year the Eighth Grade started the year with a lot of enthusiasm. Class members had a date with King Tut, and they were determined to keep Cubbie Capers honors away from the Seventh Grade. In the spring they knew there would be the eighth-grade dance and the class trip. All of these activities were as much fun as the class members had hoped that they would be. In May they were ready for the next year’s exciting step — high school at last.

High School, Here We Come!!!

The Freshmen hope the future years will be as exciting and interesting as this past year has been. They joined such clubs as F.H.A., Unireens, Hi-Y, Key Club, and Art Club. Many of the boys and girls were active in I.V., sports, football, volleyball, and basketball. The high spirits of the Freshmen were not damped by their losses at Spirit Week, but instead they developed enthusiasm for next year's competition. Freshmen also participated in Winter Formal and Homecoming activities.

FARTERS-ALL

Our Senior year was started with a fun-filled week in Florida. This was the beginning of the most glorious year ever! Most of our evening activities in Florida consisted of Big Daddy's band. Mary O'Grady's, and Joe and Ray's band at Minor Oven's. Our days were spent on the beautiful Florida beaches.

The end of Florida marked the beginning of summer. Those of us who were lucky enough to find summer jobs, while the rest of us had to be content to spend all of our time around a pool. Different camps were attended, and the beginning of football practice informed everyone that "school days" were just around the corner. It wasn't long after that, that most seniors could be seen around Baton Rouge with their prize winning door-to-door campaigns of selling Donuts.

Everyone's schedule was disrupted because Free Enterprise had to be taken - a fact which meant only one study hall. Senior privileges were finally installed on August 29, and McDonald's was found to be the most popular place to eat - until the opening of Wendy's. The 1977-78 CUB went on sale and every senior jumped to buy a yearbook. The end of September brought the beginning of Spirit Week. The last day of Spirit Week was the day that U-High won't forget, for that was the day that the Senior Mafia came to school. We worked hard together and won all four categories, with the spirit stick as our prize.

Football season was in full swing by October. The team was doing fine, and the boosters, dance group, majorettes, cheerleaders, sponsors and band were just some of the happy fans.

October 8 brought the dreaded date of the opening of A.C.T. But compared to the event of October 16, A.C.T. was nothing.

October 16 was the day the elementary building ceased to exist. A fire destroyed the elementary building, leaving hundreds of elementary schoolless. But to show the world that U-High could sur vive after a disaster, school continued as normally as possible - even though some outrageous sacrifices were made. The Senior class re habitated their senior activity room to the fourth grade. Other changes, such as Advanced Math in the cafeteria, were made to accommodate the little ones.

This year was the start of girls' sports. Homecoming festivities started October 20 with the Homecoming Supper and finished with a victory dance in the courtyard. Sadie Hawkins' Day was given a new twist this year. The Senior class relived the "true" story of Little Red Riding Hood, Sleeping Beauty, and Cinderella. The ski was a big success and showed the varied talent that the Seniors of '78 possess. For some seniors Sadie Hawkins Day had a special meaning that they won't easily forget. November 8 was the Junior/Senior trip to see King Tut, and Senior play try-outs brought the first semester to an end. Girls' and boys' basketball teams were going well, and Seniors spent their lunch hours setting decals. The Senior play, "The Admirable Crichton," was an event before we knew it, and the dreaded final exams were just around the corner. Graduation brought a tear to everyone's eye, but the annual end of the year trip to Florida started our summer on a happy note.

SENIOR PRAYER

Now I lay me down to sleep,
My homework piled up ten feet deep,
From my pillow all I ask
Not to be late for my English class.
If I should die before I wake,
I have a few requests to make:
Place my Free Enterprise in my hand,
And tell Mr. Tucker I didn't understand.
Place my speech at my feet,
And tell Mr. Leale I had the beat.
Lay my Advanced Math at my head,
And tell Dr. Garon I'm glad I'm dead.
Lay my Physics at my side,
And tell Mr. Aker that's why I died.

MARGARET GARDNER AND JIM HALL
Along with being FHA president, Margaret was a student worker on the 1977-78 CUB. Jim, who was Band president, was an active member of Cross Country.

DONNA WILSON AND DAVID MARTIN
Donna was a sponsor for the mighty CUBS! She also served as chaplain for FHA and a Key Club Sweetheart. David this year served as one of our football captains.

LAURA TIMMONS AND JOHN MUNSELL
Laura was head cheerleader for two years in a row, a very impressive record. She was also a Hi-Y Sweetheart. John was not only a great Senior Class president, but a great yearbook artist as well.

BRENT BANKSTON AND KELLI WIEMER
Brent's days were spent keeping the U-High student body in tip top shape — for he was Student Council vice president! After serving as cheerleader for two years, Kelli was promoted to the job of sponsor. In addition she was a Key Club Sweetheart.

NANCY JO ROBERTS AND VICTOR GIANELLOLI
Any office that you can think of most likely Nancy Jo has held. Anything from class president to Student Council president. Besides being one of our most famed football players, Victor was Key Club president.

GRAY BARRIO AND ELLIE QUINN
Gray proved to be that special senior by attending Junior Olympics. He was also class vice-president and football captain. Ellie, known as Els, was among other things Uniteens' president, Art Club vice-pres., and Booster sergeant at arms.

Looks Like We Made It!!!

This year has really been an exciting one for us! We’ve enjoyed meeting new people, getting to know our old friends better, and most of all, working to produce one of the best yearbooks ever. Although putting a yearbook together is a lot of work, we’ve enjoyed every minute of it.

Among other things, this year was a year of learning. We learned what is meant by responsibility and cooperation, for without these things this yearbook could have never been published.

We, the editors of the 1977-78 CUB, would like to say thanks to all the staff members who worked over 200 hours in producing this book, all the teachers who let us skip class to get that all-important yearbook deadline on time, the photographers for being there for that once-in-a-lifetime shot, all the people who contributed something, whether large or small, to the publishing of this book, and most importantly to our sponsor, Dr. Harm, whose most famous quote was, “Get it in on time, you scurril witch.”

In putting together the 1977-78 CUB, our main objective was to capture that once-in-a-lifetime thing. We’ve tried to preserve moments, whether good or bad, that will be with us the rest of our lives.

It would be impossible for us to capture all of the excitement of this year, but we have tried to give you the highlights. We hope that you will enjoy reading this book now and, in future years, looking back at this yearbook half as much as we have enjoyed putting it together.

All things must change. Nothing and no one remains the same.” In the 1977-78 CUB we have tried to preserve these things that will only happen once.

— The 1977-78 CUB Editors
