The Cub 1989

In the spirit of the Olympics that came to a close in September of 1988, the Cub staff wishes to express the spirit of excellence at University High School. With such an idea in mind we chose our theme: "Gold, for the Gold!" It is appropriate for both our athletes and our academic achievements. In the previous school year, University High truly went for the gold — the black and gold!
Right: Referees signal a touchdown during University High's 35-6 victory over Hasnille in the Superbowl. This victory won us the State Class A championship.

Left: Freshman girls step outside the cafeteria to pose for a group shot. You think we need to ask for autographs?

Below Left: More Freshman girls stepping outside the cafeteria for pictures. Do we need their autographs, too?

Below: Here we have Miss Cooper, the new guidance counselor of University High, looking cool and un النغ for the seniors. All the future seniors out there should be grateful for all the work she's been doing.

Below: Here we have some fish getting off to a good start as Young Republicans welcoming J. Danforth Quayle to the LSU Assembly Center.

Below Right: Two of U-High's young ladies dress the part of Southern Belles.

Left: Debbie Stebb and Rachel Roberts discover the joys of studying with friends. Of course, they probably already knew how much fun schoolwork really is, but for the sake of our picture, they rediscovered it.

Above: Who is that masked man?

Faculty/Staff

As students, we cannot be thankful for the excellence of our instruction and the strength of our teachers. The faculty is tough, and it can be hard at times, but with pure dedication (because it certainly isn't the incentive of a high salary), they give us the finest available in education. The Presidential Awards for Excellence in the teaching of Math and Science won by Zoe Harrell and Claudia Fowler attest to the fact that our teachers inspire that spirit of excellence in us, the students at University High.

SIXTH GRADE

The sixth graders learned it's not easy being the new kids on the block. This year's class had to adjust to changing classes and locker partners but being able to take part in the student council (and the parties) more than made up for it. Among the activities, the sixth graders participated in winter sports, field trips, hard and choir concerts, and middle school socials. All in all, the sixth grade was a tough but fun and rewarding school year.

Seventh Grade

A ten-page report...original short stories...American history...All were a part of the seventh grade curriculum. Being the middle of the middle school proved to be lots of fun, too! Many students participated in such sports as football, basketball, swimming, and cross country running. The seventh graders tried their best to set good examples for the sixth graders and to show the eighth graders that they're grown up now. Altogether, it was a great year to remember!
EIGHTH GRADE

The eighth grade class left the middle school with a sense of maturity and accomplishment. They did everything from attending the middle school dances and picnics to participating in the Youth Legislature. They ended the year with a fun-filled, but educational trip to Avery Island. 1988-1989 was truly a year of growing up and preparing for high school as the eighth graders finished a year of going for the gold.

Middle School Music Programs!

The sixth grade students participate in both choir and band classes. Students in the seventh and eighth grades must choose one of the choirs.

Dr. Georgia Green works with elementary music students and fifth, sixth and seventh grade choirs.

Mr. Novak is the band teacher for the whole school.
FOOD FEST

The 1988 Food Fest was a "lusty" learning experience. Each eighth grader cooked up two exciting dishes, each representing a Louisiana parish. The Food Fest not only helped the eighth graders learn to cook better but also helped them learn about the background and culture of each Louisiana parish. Channel Two News visited the event, and first and second place prizes were awarded to Margaret Foehr and Caroline French. The students worked hard cooking and preparing the foods which resulted in a lot of fun.

Below: Mr. Guillot brings the class on the Louisiana Parishes before the Food Test.

Bottom: Derek Fontenot, Vaughn Melchers, Mark Gibson, and Joshua Sherar are hardest about tasting the different dishes.

SCIENCE FAIR

The Science Fair was an exhibition of science projects done by the eighth-graders in the areas of Physics, Health and Medicine, Psychology, Chemistry, Biology, and Earth Science. The eighth graders put much hard work and effort into the projects, not only found lots of inspiration. The first place, second place, and third place winners are listed below.

Physics — Wendell Johnson
Health and Medicine — Ann Lock
Psychology — Bradley Fizer
Chemistry — Mary Clayton Johnson
Biology — Ann Baubel
Botany — James Southwick
Environmental — John Spindel

MIDDLE SCHOOL

The 1988-89 Middle School Student Council had a successful year. It was involved with many activities and several donation sales. The profit from these sales went mainly to buy food and drinks for activities.

Included is some of the Middle School Student Council plans were two Honors Day Assemblies and an Awards Day program. During November, the officers went to a Student Council retreat in Shreveport for a weekend. They also held a Thanksgiving Dance and for all of the Middle School students. Likewise in the spring, there was a Valentine's Dance. Finally, students in sixth and seventh grades elected new Student Council officers for the 1989-1990 year. Next year will be different, with only a single president instead of co-presidents. The new leader, Lauren Smith, presented at the Awards Day presentation in May. We wish all the new officers good luck in the upcoming year.

The seventh grade overnight camping trip to Camp Singing Waters was a fine finish to a great year. Along with Dr. Fabre, Ms. Harst, Mr. Roberts, and Coach Madelon, the girls had a marvelous time horseback riding, fishing, swimming, and playing. A hayride and a campfire, complete with singing and guitar accompaniment, took place Friday night. The group returned to town Saturday afternoon. Photos for this spread were provided by Erin Bland.

High School
The Freshmen class had a year filled with many new experiences. They got to attend such activities as Homecoming, Winter Formal, and Spirit Week. They wrote, acted, and filmed a Christmas play in Mrs. Bossier’s English class. They visited many far away places through Mr. Tucker’s colorful tales in World Geography. They are looking forward to going for the gold in their next three years at University High.
SOPHOMORES — Two and Two

The 1988-89 sophomore class participated in many exciting activities this past school year. They were met with tragedy as Mr. Menchen was forced to sit out a large portion of the year with back ailments, and for the second nine weeks the biology class was met with a swarm of substitues. However, Ms. Fisker saved much of the remainder of the year.

The English class started with a bang with tests on "To Kill a Mockingbird" and "A Separate Peace." Mrs. Friesberg's class also acted out the "Cruelile" and visited two art museums. The civics class had a mock presidential debate. The geometry class was helped greatly by new IBM computers due to a special grant.

The juniors struggled through a tough year. We had a "great" time in American History, and we learned a lot in Mr. Delacroix's English class. We were happy to get our class rings, a lasting monument of our high school years. Some of us enjoyed a new privilege this year, junior service. We are all anxious to get through our last years at University High and to graduate.

The Senior Retreat

Camp Singing Waters was the site of this year's senior retreat. The seniors slept in cabins and enjoyed the many different facilities provided, from canoeing, horseback riding, and softball, to hiking, playing board games, or just relaxing under the trees. The class was not ready to leave when their two days had slowly melted by, for they knew that the next morning, instead of sitting in the severe winter, they would be working in a noisy classroom.

First below: These seniors enjoy an exciting game of Pictionary on the many picnic tables. Second below: David Harris contemplates sailing into the lake, or for it to sail him.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Julie Baker enthusiastically gives her speech in the courtyard as she runs for treasurer of the Student Council.

Under the leadership of President David Harris the Student Council had a great year, this making it a great year for the whole school! From organizing all of the Homecoming activities during the first semester, to planning the election of next year's officers in the second semester, the Student Council remained busy the entire year. With all of the participation of all of the elected officers and representatives on the council, a large variety of exciting activities involving the whole student body were successfully accomplished.

President David Harris does not mind being interrupted to smile for the camera during the meeting.

National Honor Society

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a University High School student. Those outstanding students are nominated by the faculty on the basis of leadership, character, scholarship, and service. They also must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or above to be considered. The new initiates were recognized at the National Honor Society Banquet. This year the keynote speaker was Dr. William Richardson, the Associate Dean of Agriculture at LSU.

Left: All of the NHS members and the faculty were recognized before the parents for their hard work throughout the year.

This year was successful and full-filled for the HI-Y club. Under the leadership of president Holly Bartels, the club participated in a wide number of activities. A money-making venture that the club sponsored was the selling of concessions at U-High basketball games. The most important event of the year was, of course, the weekend-long mock legislature at the State Capital. The members enjoyed debating bills, electing next year’s officers, and testifying in the courtrooms just as it is done in the "real world!"
El Spanish Club

At one of the year's many and fun class functions, Jan Nichols-Frederick (traditionally held in her kitchen) encounters some of her students, including Sam Kadlouz, a regular attendee, and her unspoken friend and rival.

CUB STAFF — 1988-89

As always, the Cub Staff worked long hours after school, on weekends, and into the summer to make this yearbook. This was hard work, but the knowing they had made an excellent yearbook (plus the pizza party) was more than enough reward. We would like to thank all of the people who have taken pictures or worked on spreads for the yearbook. We hope you enjoy this 1989 Cub as it reviews the year of “Going for the Gold!”

Above: Yvonne Coker, the Yearbook Service Award winner, makes a few touchups. Above right, Samantha Ryder and Michelle Marcantel, our proof editors, are constantly cutting their ideas on paper. Right, Scott Stelb and Samantha Ryder take a break from their copy for a moment.

Uniteens

OFFICERS
President — Kelli England
Vice President — Pm Rothjge
Secretary — Becky Barton
Treasurer — Jolynn Wimmer
Chaplain — Stacy Hill
Sponsors — Carol Sheeley Sessions
Mary Harris

Uniteens began its year with the traditional in-and-out sister party. During this time of fellowship, gifts are exchanged between old and new members. The new service point system put the sisters to the toll of some of the busiest members. However, new girls still found time to collect food for the annual Christmas drive and to work in the gift-wrapping booth. The group sponsored its annual sale of verwendet.

Teacher Appreciation Week is always a big event at U-High, and the Uniteens are responsible for its success! This year the group distributed apples, balloons, food, and carnations. Did you ever wonder if helium balloons will stay inflated overnight? You could ask Mrs. Sessions! The Uniteens balloon committee left her office Tuesday afternoon with balloons all over the ceiling. On Wednesday morning, the floor was covered instead, as well as counter and desk! But, Uniteens came to the rescue, bought new balloons and inflated them in time for distribution! Another great Teacher Appreciation Week!

The 1988-89 Spirit Steppers set many new standards for the squads following them. They started out the year with tryouts which for the first time were open to the ninth graders. After establishing the new squad, they got ready for camp.

Off the new Spirit Steppers went to the American All-Star camp at LSU. At camp, four of the girls — Mary Bearden, Lauren Dearing, Michelle Ginn, and Michelle Marcantel — were selected to take part in the American All-Star dance team. As part of that special team, they traveled to Bermuda to put on a show.

After camp, the squad got ready for football season which finished by DANCIN’ IN THE DOME!! After football came basketball. For the dance team that meant dancing at Friday night home games. All through the year, the Spirit Steppers danced their way to the Gold!
CHEERLEADERS

Boosters & Jr. Boosters

Boosters worked hard this year. They assisted and offered support during football and basketball games; they were an important part of the U-High school spirit!

Boosters and Spirit Steppers & Cheerleaders, as always, showed their school spirit.

The Junior Boosters started in January and cheered exclusively at basketball games. Next year they will be Boosters and cheer at all the games.

Both Boosters and Junior Boosters made all the games — football and basketball — more exciting and fun! Way to go, girls!

Spring Sports

Stacy — "Being a Sponsor for the championship team was an experience I'll never forget. There was a lot of work involved, but it all paid off in the end at the Superdome. Thanks, guys!"

Whitney — "This year, as a Sponsor, was a very rewarding experience. As the season progressed, we all grew closer together, and practically became a family. We all worked hard to reach our ultimate goal — STATE CHAMPS!! Thanks, team!"
Choral Music

The choir performance at St. Joseph's Cathedral at Christmas was once again a breathtaking event.

—at Right: Andy Dornett leads the band on the field for the first home game.
The University High School Band enjoyed a successful year in 1988-89, highlighted by a trip to New Orleans for the state music festival.

The U-High Marching Band, under the capable leadership of senior Drum Major Andy Dommert, performed for many football games and pep rallies, as well as participating in the Denham Springs Marching Band Festival. The fall season concluded with an exciting marching performance in the Superdome at the Class A state championship football game.

The spring semester marked the beginning of the weekly routine of section rehearsals, as well as Honor Band auditions and Solo and Ensemble performances. In March, the U-High Concert Band traveled to Sarah Reed High School in New Orleans for the district festival.

Performing "Raging Thunder March," "Air for Band," and "Northpoint Fantasy," the band earned a Sweepstakes trophy, signifying all SUPERIOR ratings. By earning a Sweepstakes award, the band qualified for the Louisiana State Music Festival held at Loyola University in New Orleans. At the state festival, the band received an EXCELLENT rating in sight-reading and all SUPERIOR ratings in concert. This represented the highest rating given to any Class B band in the state.

The students performed to a full house on May 4, 1989, at the annual spring concert for parents and friends. Although the weather did not cooperate, the concert was a success, especially the closing chorus of the audience favorite, "Louie, Louie."
The Collage

The Collage staff worked many long and hard hours to collect, type, illustrate and publish literary works of our high school students. This year's edition is another example of "Going for the Gold!"

Sophomore staffs, Ashley Cowart and Shayna Fisher, thrust up some last minute stapling before this year's editions are distributed.

CROSS COUNTRY

U.H.S. Cross Country teams swept through the season placing in the top positions at the nine meets. The girls' twenty-one member team, under the supervision of Bethany McCulla, competed triumphantly with the best teams in all classes. Pacing third in District and second in State are testaments of the team's dedication and success. The varsity boys campaigned for a rewarding season against top runners. Under coach Stephen Delacroix's watchful eye, the team was prepared for their win at the state meet — first place for a first-rate effort. Coach Delacroix also guided the fifteen JV runners to a team victory and many individual records. Way to go, Cross Country!

U-High Track Team

Takes First in State!

University High won a weighted state Class A track and field championship.

...Getting 44 of its winning 76 points from Brad Banta and David Harris in the field events, U-High decisively beat Southern Lab by a nine-point margin.

...It was the second state track title for U-High coach Gerald Farr, who also won the title in '79. Farr also has won two state basketball titles at U-High.

...David Harris and Brad Banta placed 1-2 in the shot put, and reversed the order in the discus. Banta added another eight points with a second in the javelin.

..."Banta and Harris have done that 1-2 stuff all season," Paul Hayes said. "I was up among the vaulters and he won a first place. Jon Pruett gave us a first in the two-mile. He missed running last year because of "mono." This year he ran both the 1,600 and the 3,200, but became sick and later decided to concentrate on only one event. Double-A (Aaron Allen) scored 13 points in the high jump, too. Everyone of these nine kids we brought made a contribution." (Quotes from Coach Farr)

University High picked up a big 18 points when Harris and Banta went 1-2 in the shot put. Harris (60’ 5 1/2") and Banta 55-1 1/4. Banta came back to place second in the javelin with a toss of 160-4. There in the discus, it was Banta tossing 164-5, and Harris humming 192-5.

...U-High matched another first when Paul Hayes of the Cubs won the pole vault on fewer misses with a vault of 13-6.
Swimming Team

Enduring the rain, cold, and wind, under the leadership of Coach Jendrezewski, the swimming team ended the regular season with an outstanding record. In cluster meets, the girls' team and the boys' team placed 2nd and 3rd in two. In the city meet (16 teams), the girls were 4th and the boys were 3rd. In the state meet (58 teams), the girls and boys were 9th. Swimmer Shannon Pinc performed especially well in those meets winning several first place awards.

Seniors Aaron Elliott, Terence Koncki, and Alimee Jendrezewski completed six successful years of swimming at University High. A special congratulations goes to these three fine athletes.

* These players earned tennis letters.

Under the outstanding leadership and play of Tiffany Williams, the girls' tennis team and Teddy Jones, boys' tennis team captain, the UIS tennis team had 15 wins and 10 losses to tie with Episcopal for second in division II district play. In regional play, the girls' team took second place; the boys' team finished third place. These excellent team members qualified for state: Teddy Jones, Tiffany Williams, Katie Kirkpatrick, Kurt LaCos, Jonathan Shier, Angie Hirschey, Jessie Mairin, Lewis Unglesby, and Dale Calhoun.

The team can be found in Alexandria, Katie and Kurt made the semi-finals in mixed doubles. At the annual spring sports banquet, Dale Calhoun received the Award, an award which is voted on by the team members as the person who has given support to the entire team. Tiffany Williams and Teddy Jones were named as the outstanding players.

Activities
Ice Cream Social

The Ice Cream Social, sponsored by the Student Council, gave all of the new students a chance to meet new friends a few days before school started. It was also a time where super summer stories could be exchanged! The Spaghetti Supper was the next major event of the year. The cheerleaders, the booters, and the spirit keepers sponsored the delicious supper once again and, as usual, it was a huge success! The Ice Cream Social and the Spaghetti Supper were two activities of pure frustrating and fun!

THE HONDURAS EXPERIMENT

With eleven students and our illustrious Spanish teacher, U-High's exchange with the American School of San Pedro Sula, Honduras, was successful into its third year of operation. In Honduras from January 8-15, our group had a wonderful time; even the extra school work on their return didn't get them down. After coming home, the students made was: "I want to go back!" The group of Honduran students arrived February 26 and enjoyed their time with us until March 5.

Clockwise From Top Right: The whole group stops for a picture in Vichada, the Valley of the Angels after doing a bit of shopping. It might be time to go home, but the fun continued all the way to the airport.

Party Phh!! Well, most and Searles found the food so easy that they didn't drink for the first night. The drinks are perfectly straight, you know, well... it just feels good! Cheers to Jeff's, the spot of San Pedro Sula.

The Honduran students' visit to Baton Rouge included not only lessons in the classroom, but a string of parties, bowling, video arcades, trips to the mall, and fellowship, as seen in these photos.
SPIRIT WEEK

The Senior Class of 1989 won another Spirit Week title this year with their skit based on the Wizard of Oz! They were the first class to ever win two Spirit Weeks in a row! However, all of the classes displayed hard work and determination during this fun-filled week. Whether working on the wall posters, locker stickers, costumes, or skits, everyone became involved. When Spirit Day finally rolled around, all of the classes were ready for a friendly competition of Cub Spirit!

Senior High Awards Day is a day of recognition for those students who have achieved that extra measure of success throughout the year. This year many saw the results of their hard work pay off both in recognition and in personal satisfaction of a job well done. The faculty at U-High is proud to salute all these students as they "go for the gold."

Each year the teachers vote on the most outstanding boy and girl in each class. Ten seniors are selected as Cub Award winners. Two are selected from each of the other grades. A special salute to these special students!
QUIZ BOWL '89
a new competition for U-High

This year, under the leadership of Mr. Dejarek and Ms. McCullum, U-HS participated in the citywide Quiz Bowl, finishing second only to Scotlandville Magnet. U-High was represented by Kristin Leake, Terence Roshto, Scott Stahl and Cleve Lancaster, with Marshall Hensley serving as alternate. U-HS played four matches, each consisting of two rounds of twenty-five questions each. The semi-final and final matches were televised and U-High fans everywhere were glued to their sets. We're proud of you — Kristin, Terence, Scotti, Cleve and Marshall — in your quest for the gold!

THE FRENCH CONNECTION

Although communication was difficult and at times impossible, the elementary students from France, their principals and chaperones, as well as their lab school hosts, enjoyed a week filled with fun and metemps.
UHS faculty and students

One of the highpoints of this year for the entire school occurred when Dr. McHardy's first grade students were filmed for a segment on "Good Morning America." The students captured a grand prize in the Scholastic News Kids Care Community service project by growing 385 pounds of potatoes to give to the hungry and the homeless. After winning, the students presented their $1000 award to the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank. Congratulations to Dr. McHardy and her first grade class for their hard work and success!

Dr. McHardy and her class proudly present their thousand dollar check to the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank!

We had a farm. We raised 385 pounds of muddy potatoes! We brought them to the food bank to feed the hungry and homeless people. Then we won a prize!

U-High students in grades three and four and in grades five and six participated in a city wide spelling bee sponsored by Gourdeaux's/Maison Blanche. The winner from grades three and four was fourth grader Jason Wilson, while the winner from grades five and six was sixth grader Marston Fowler. Although neither boy won city honors, they both had fun and represented U-High well in their quest for the gold!

The Editors' Note

Editors: Michelle Marcantel and Samara Ryder

Here are the memories from our 1988-1989 school year which we have captured for you to enjoy for years to come. Every page of this yearbook shows a member of U-High; therefore, it is not only our pride, it is yours. But it could not have been accomplished without the hard work and dedication of everyone involved. As you look through the pages, please realize that the yearbook represents the exciting activities and the outgoing people of U-High, and that it could not have been successful without an active school and a dedicated yearbook staff. We hope that with this yearbook we have chronicled a complete, fun-filled year of your life at U-High!

We would like to give special thanks to Dr. Fox, our sponsors Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Barton, and our most dedicated and hard-working staff members Youndy Cook, Scott Stelb, Brian Anic, and Luke Sheldon for their work with the CUB 1989 in our quest for the gold!
