Graduation

Top: Li "Friends" was a special song. (R) Proud parents. Middle: Li Frenson thrives one-Matt, Judy, and John (R). Graduates visit with their parents while they wait for practice to begin. Bottom: Li And Mrs. Harrel waits for practice to begin. (L) Above: Many happy parents and graduates. (R) Novak "Congratulations to the class of '86" from Matt's family.

This was an unusual class, a creative class. In fact, graduation was different. We began baccalaureate with the benediction (it was late), but Grenchin made it work. And we ended with the invocation. James had a week on his way, but he arrived just in time for the class picture and practice. In spite of it all, the class of '86 was a great class...congratulations.

It's almost over - here's the benediction

"Yay! We can finally celebrate!" and the caps go flying... it's a bacchanal!
