University Laboratory School

Baton Rouge, Louisiana
Kelly gets into school life.

Students take school seriously.

The cheerleaders show school spirit and talent.

Jacy shows our independence.

White Cole shows how we share.

But Mrs. Spindly does it all.

Sonnie dives in for U-High...

while Andy and Lauren "get into the act."

But this group shows our greatest side.

Sir shows Cub determination.

and how we "Take the Cake."

Fred runs for his school.

Tony and Chris show us loyalty and friendship...

and Astra, Emily, and Elizabeth enjoy homecoming "decorations."

and Ethel, Anne and Betsy work together...

and these girls "run the show!"
Deborah explains Halloween in French.

Neal and guests, Liz, Lindsey, Katherine, and Spencer are happy to be back to school.

Mrs. Cowart inaugurates the new MSOC Vice President.

We’re all smiles!

A moment of anticipation at the pep rally.

M. S. Boys' Basketball

The University 7th and 8th grade basketball teams began their respective seasons in late November and completed them with the league tournament the first weekend in March.

The 7th grade team was the runner-up, while the 8th grade was split into two sixteen-man teams.

League opponents included Episcopals, Parkview, Christian Life, Family Christian, Chapel Trotman, Lake River, Rivals, and Hosanna.

All three teams played to the best of their ability during the round robin segment of the season (16 games).

The 8th grade combined squad (26 players) won the end of the year league tournament, defeeating North 40-31 for the championship.

High School Quiz Bowl

The Quiz Bowl Team had a good year. We defeated Lee High and Parkview Baptist to start off the season. We narrowly lost to Benton Rouge High, giving us 9-4 and for the closest match that they had all year. We were eliminated from competition by a loss to Lee on a questionable call from the judge. However, the call was reversed when Matt, Niles, and Derek followed the judge home with a bag of orange and a sandwich. But, hey, we had fun. Good luck to next year's team from the seniors.

Senior Awards
This was an unusual class, a creative class. In fact, graduation was different. We began baccalaureate with the benediction (it was late), but Gretch made it work. And we ended with the invocation. James had a wrack in his way, but he arrived just in time for the class picture and practice. In spite of it all, the class of ’96 was a great class... congratulations.

It's almost time for diplomas!

Matt gets his diploma from Dr. Mathews.

"Whew! I finally got my diploma... they can't take it back... can they?"

It's almost over - here's the benediction

"Yes! We can finally celebrate!" and the caps go flying... if it's a baccalaureate!
The Cub Staff

Sara Bartlewicz: “Sorry I’m late, but...”
Tyasha Blount: “Just tell me what to do, and I’ll do it.”
Wille Blount: “What else can I do?”
Liz Butler: “Happy Captains!”
Joey Dauwin: “I can do that!”
Kelly Hawkins: “I’m just a typist. I don’t do captions!”
Brian Ludage: “Do you have a copy?”
Elizabeth Mathews: “Cool! Let me pick the pictures!”
Caroline Pittman: “Now where did that white out go?”
Joy Reagan: “I’m through. Do you have another page to type?”
Sally Richardson: “Don’t know, don’t care.”
Kathryn Sillman: “I don’t even have a picture; you expect me to have a quote?”
Taylor Stewart: “This isn’t as hard as it looks.”
Amy Turner: “I’ll be here as soon as baseball is over.”
Adam Wagenschot: “I do the finals first.”

Mrs. Mary McGhee: “I have to go by Total Photographic at lunch and then I’ll have some film...”
Mrs. Carol Young: “I haven’t enjoyed anything this much...except senior essays!”
