Faculty Recognition

Beverly Wilson received the Kenneth W. Tullos Appreciation Award from the Downtown Kiwanis Club as the Outstanding Art Teacher.

Vorth Thompson has been selected as one of 25 educators to participate in the Educators in Saudi Arabia Program. The study tour focuses on the areas of education, industry, history, culture, and global relations. The in-country study includes visits to schools, significant cultural and historical sites, and modern industrial facilities.

Marty Loupe has been selected as one of 20 secondary teachers to participate in the Toyota International Teacher Program in Costa Rica. Selected teachers will interact with Costa Rica: leaders and experience the diversity of Costa Rica’s peoples and ecosystems in an effort to inspire the creative teaching of international, cultural and environmental themes in U.S. schools and communities.

Cynthia Edmonson National Board Certification

Frankie Day National Board Certification

In 2006, Connie McDonald was named Teacher of the Year by River of Words International Art and Writing Organization. River of Words sponsors a yearly contest, encouraging students to observe and write or draw about nature. There are four Grand Prize Winners and 50 finalists from over 20,000 poetry entries. Because Mrs. McDonald has had so many students named finalists over the last 16 years, the organization invited her to speak at the Library of Congress in Washington D.C. last April.

Our faculty works hard at having fun - and we're not afraid of any old "mouse"! They always have time for their students. U-High teachers are the BEST!
From the Director

Dear Cub Family,

When I remember our 2007 graduates, I will remember an outstanding group of individuals who conducted themselves with class! Congratulations! We wish you well.

I will also remember the 2006-07 school year as one of evolution. What was already good keeps getting better.

I am extremely proud of our ability to begin to provide our University High students with concurrent enrollment in Louisiana State University. The addition of two LSU math courses (taught with college textbooks by our faculty for college credits) and the opportunity to expand to other subjects over the next several years is a fine step to the rigorous academic IB and advanced placement programs already provided at University High School. The general curriculum alone prepares our students well for college and beyond.

The look of the physical campus continues to improve. In the past few years we have renovated a middle school, high school wing, an elementary building, the courtyard, and the cafeteria. The addition of the new elementary wing brings us 300 new students and over 25 new faculty members. By the time this yearbook is published, or soon thereafter, we will have a concession/lockerroom facility at the Cub Complex.

The construction and renovation projects would not be possible without the support of private donations through the University Laboratory School Foundation and the Capital Campaign for the Future of Effective Education. I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude on behalf of our faculty, administration, staff and students, to all of our donors, and would like to recognize the lead donors. They are:

- Diane and Jerry McKean, Grandparents: $500,000
- Sharon and Claude Pennington, Parents: $750,000
- Carol Abtson-Biedermann, Auntma, Class of 1974: $2,000,000

To all students, faculty, staff, parents and friends, congratulations on a wonderful year! Many thanks to the Cub Staff for your hard work on preserving these memories for our current and future Cubs.

Wade Smith, Director

From the Elementary Division

In 2006-07 the elementary division of the Laboratory School continued to lead the state as a model of excellence through the implementation of the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Program. This year our division served as host to teachers from all over the state. We owe much of this to the dedicated and caring faculty and staff. We also doubled the number of Cub families this year. We were thrilled to have such a talented, knowledgeable group of young students join us. We appreciate the time, patience, and support all the parents have given us. We feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with your children.

Congratulations to the Class of 2007!! Seniors, we will miss you. Thanks for the time and talents you have shared with us in the elementary division. You have been great role models for our students. Our best wishes go with you as you embark on a new path. We hope you will visit us often and become active members of University Laboratory School Alumni Association.

To the Cub Staff—You have done an excellent job of recording our memories. Thank you. GO CUBS!!

Dorothy Runfellow
Principal, Elementary Division
Stickers that say wow or cookies that make you frown
Bows bigger than your heads and dirty shoes (your parents dread)

Red light, green light, yellow light mark your good behavior, but soon these lights will lead you on a highway of good favor,
So enjoy the smelly markers, recess, and class pets.
*Cause soon your show and tell will turn into hard tests.

-Caroline Sexton
What is your favorite book this year? Why?
"Knight's Kingdom because it's legos. I just like legos. I like to build blocks and I also make lego boats." -Christian Sexton
What is the best thing about first grade?
"You get to like switch a lot into groups and then the teacher will tell you to do stuff... like math." - Jake Rosenfeld
First grade means learning to work together and learning to work alone.
2nd Grade

What is the best thing about second grade?
"P.E. is really the best." - Wilson Smith
The second graders have fun in class!
But we do stop for the camera!
3rd Grade

What do you think middle school will be like?
"So much homework it's scary." - Major Mittendorf
What is your favorite book this year? Why?
"Little Mermaid because she's my homegirl."
-Meme Jenkins
Fourth Grade is a lot of fun—we work alone and in groups, we try experiments and we learn hands on.

"I know! I know! I know!"
What is the best thing about your teacher?
"She's young and hip. I like how she's short."
-Riley Tomeny
Fifth grade means working hard,

studying all sorts of things (including holidays!)

and even being on stage to show off our stuff
There's not much difference between then and now, except the days seem to last longer somehow. Everything else is almost the same, but there are tests to be taken and GPAs to maintain.

-Yearbook Class
In the future, when you look at your yearbook, memories of your years at the Lab School will spring forth. These memories will be both individual and those you have in common with the members of your class. Through the years you will have many interesting experiences and more memories will fill your life. But the memories you have as the University Laboratory School Class of 2007 are the ones that have formed your foundation and will be with you forever. The faculty and I have many memories of your class as well. My time with you began when you were third grade students. I watched more closely when you reached the sixth grade. Yes, I have watched you grow from awkward little students negotiating the cafeteria without your teacher, leading the line to seniors anxiously poring over college applications. I trust your memories are all good and will be cherished throughout your life. In addition, I trust we have helped you grow with a belief in lifelong learning. You have received an education that will serve you well throughout your lives, and the memories within these pages will serve you in those quiet moments when you turn your thoughts back to your days spent with us. My gentle admonition to you is work hard, play hard and always in that order.

On behalf of the faculty, staff and administration, I wish you health, happiness, and success throughout your lives.

Go Cubs!

Dr. Allen Camburn, Principal
"Is there any advice you would like to tell the upcoming sixth grade? "Just get on all the teachers' good side, and be prepared for... anything."

-Alex Hadskey
7th Grade

Should Middle School have dances?
"Yes. We can party too."
-Stevie Keller
We have class, skills - and one cute sombrero!

We can be silly or smart - and we can really do that Cajun two-step!

We love to study, study and guess what... study!

We love taking field trips, especially to Alligator Bayou.
8th Grade

Who's the coolest teacher? Why?
"Mr. Manthei because he's the MANthei."

Quiz Bowl

The Quiz Bowl team has had an exciting year. In February, members met at Episcopal School of Acadiana in Caad, LA. We first defeated Rummel of Baton Rouge, and then we lost by a narrow margin to Catholic High of New Iberia.

Durham was our next competitor; we won. After a repeat match against Catholic High, we were forced into a third match to determine which of us would take first place. We won the match and title on the last question of the competition!

The team went on to compete at the Louisiana Association for Academic Competition in Natchitoches. This makes our fourth consecutive year to qualify for this prestigious competition.

The Quiz Bowl team was 3rd in the division, behind Catholic High of New Iberia and Menard.

In the high school gym
I stand in the middle of the old hardwood floor, recalling the glory of the games.
The few rays of sunlight peek
through the faded glass windows.
The school pride could not be more prominent.
The sweet smell of leather and sweat is overwhelming.
I scan the banners around for the success of the ghosts that played before me.
Not a soul present but mine.
though I can hear a crowd cheering full of excitement and the squeaking of the shoes on the floor still echoing through the walls.
As I walk one last time through
the rusty doors of the gym,
I will forever remember the best times
of my life.

We started this journey long ago
It's hard to believe the road left to travel and our time left together is so brief
The years passed with a swiftness that surprised us all
We've come so far together
From Kindergarten naps
To middle school love
To senior pranks
Now we each go our separate ways
Diplomas in hand
Dreams on our sleeves
Memories in our hearts
We'll never forget the times we shared
And lessons we've learned
In the company of friends
As we set out on our own
We share a common bond
We each have the recollections and lessons
Learned from a lifetime of U-High
The end is finally here
13 years completed
And there is nothing left to say
But I'll see you somewhere else along the way

Go Cubs Go!
We would really like to tell you that the yearbook has been a smooth ride, but we've experienced some road construction, potholes, and traffic. We've endured slow computers, yearbook members who went M.I.A., and lost pages and pictures. Despite these speed bumps, the 2007 yearbook is complete! We would like to thank Mrs. Young for being the most patient driver of all time, the yearbook class for their hard construction work, and Mr. Joey for technical support. Good luck to next year's Cub Yearbook staff, whoever may be editor, and may you be bestowed with hundreds of good pictures taken by the one and only Eric Landry.

Peace-out U-High
