Parents: We developed this instructional plan with our families’ challenging needs in mind. Our goal is to provide all instruction for your child. This plan provides for remote days to be an extension of our face-to-face days. Remote days provide for flexible schedules. Please refer to the following guide for additional information. More detailed information will be forthcoming from your grade level and teacher. Working together, we can assure students continue to learn and make progress through this transitional period.

Kindergarten – 5th Grade – A/B Rotation

Face-to-Face Learning (A/B) Day:
- Students spend their in-person day with their Instructor and Associate Teacher; Remote students are assisted by the Associate Teacher and possibly an Interventionist who are providing follow-up teaching for content learned during in-person learning.
- Direct instruction will be heavily focused on skill development. Students will start independent work. Teachers will assure they understand directions for completing assigned work. Students will complete the assignments on remote days. Materials will be sent home with student.
