A LOOK AT A DAY ON TOUR

Dominican Republic

Morning
• Enjoy a regional-style breakfast.
• Head to a local community center where you’ll help local teachers lead an English tutoring session.

Afternoon
• Grab a traditional lunch of rice and beans.
• Visit a nearby mangrove forest to take a boat ride and swim in a lagoon.

Evening
• Participate in a conversation about how someone’s circumstances influence his or her opportunities in life.

* Activities vary based on service project.
A more engaging learning experience

• Help students become global citizens
• Bring subjects and destinations to life
• Develop perspectives that set students apart on college applications—and give them a leg up in their future careers
• Spark the lifelong ability to take on any new experience with confidence

“I watched my students, who have always found a need for more things, learn to rely on less; learn to use what they have and adapt; to not take anything for granted.”

— Aimee L., Group Leader
