

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignment 2026
Mrs. Bailey
abail79@lsu.edu

Incoming 7th graders are required to read TWO novels for summer reading.

- 1.) All students should read Refugee by Alan Gratz and complete the assignment on pages two and three of this document. The assignment is due on the first day of school. If you have any questions over the summer, please feel free to email me. Our first unit will focus on Refugee. You may choose to purchase your own copy if you would like to annotate as you read. However, classroom copies will be available to check out during the unit if you borrow a copy from the library over the summer.
- 2.) In addition to Refugee, all 7th-grade students should choose one book to read from the list below. Students may read a print or electronic version or listen to the audiobook if they prefer. Each title is a nominee for the Louisiana Young Readers' Choice Award for the 2026–2027 school year. Students who read three or more books from this list by the end of the year will have the opportunity to vote for the award winner. Please come prepared to discuss your selected book during the first weeks of school.

7th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Refugee by Alan Gratz

Mrs. Bailey- 7th Grade RWW

About Refugee: Three young people are looking for refuge, a place for themselves and their families to live in peace. Separated by decades in time and by oceans in geography, their stories share similar emotional traumas and desperate situations, and, in the end, connect in astounding ways. Josef in 1930s Nazi Germany, Isabel in 1990s Cuba, and Mahmoud in present-day Syria—all three hang on to their hope for a new tomorrow in the face of harrowing dangers.

DIRECTIONS: Answer the following questions from Part I and Part II below on a separate sheet of loose-leaf paper. Your response should be handwritten in complete sentences. I will not accept typed responses. Please email me if you have any questions (abail79@lsu.edu). The assignment is due on the first day of school.

PART I: In this book, you will encounter cultures that may or may not be familiar to you. Research and become familiar with these terms before you read. Jot down two or three facts about each term on loose-leaf paper:

Josef's Story(1930s Nazi Germany):	Isabel's Story(1990s Cuba):	Mahmoud's Story(present-day Syria):
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Kristallnacht Adolf Hitler Dachau bar mitzvah yarmulke Führer 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Fidel Castro el norte (Cuban dialect) clave (Cuban dialect) mañana (Cuban dialect) 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Bashar al-Assad Aleppo Daesh Mecca hijab

PART II: Answer FIVE of the following questions on loose-leaf paper. You do not need to answer all of the questions. Choose FIVE of the questions to respond to. Make sure to write the number of the question you are responding to on your paper. Answer all parts of the question. Use complete sentences.

1. Discuss the reasons that Josef, Isabel, and Mahmoud's families leave their homes. What are the situations in each of their lives that force them to flee? How are their situations similar and how are they different?

2. What is the theme of this book as expressed through the main characters? What do you feel is the most important idea in each of these stories? Provide examples in the plot of each story to support your ideas.

3. Discuss the personalities of each of these young people: Josef, Isabel, and Mahmoud. In what ways do each of them have to take charge of their families' plights at different points in their story? Describe the points at which each young person has to act as an adult.

4. How do the parents in each of these families change in the course of their journeys? Compare the fathers and mothers of Josef, Isabel, and Mahmoud, and discuss the ways that events in each story shape their responses to their situation.

5. Compare the method of travel for each of these refugee families. How does Josef's sea voyage compare to those of Isabel and Mahmoud? What is the most threatening part of each of these voyages and how do those threats create obstacles for the families as they travel?

6. Josef says, "It was like they were invisible . . . people chose not to see them." (p. 18) How does this simple statement reflect his experience on the train in Nazi Germany? Why do people ignore them? Compare his experience to Mahmoud's when he says, "They only see us when we do something they don't want us to do." (p. 214)

7. Why do you think the author chose to tell these three stories in alternating chapters? What is the effect on the reader of moving back and forth between the stories from different periods of history?

8. Who are the helpful people in each of these three journeys? Why do others treat the refugees with meanness and disrespect? How do these experiences affect each of the families and lead to the survival of certain family members?

9. How does the author develop the point of view of each of the characters? What is the impact of seeing how many days each character has been away from home at the start of each section? How do the stories of these three children intersect in the end, even though they are separated by many years?

10. Research the history of the three dictators in these stories—Adolf Hitler, Fidel Castro, and Bashir al-Assad. Discuss how the policies and beliefs of these leaders have affected the lives of the characters in each story. Are the lives of the people in each of these places still the same today or have their lives improved?
