DESCRIPTION OF THE LSU LABORATORY SCHOOL

- College preparatory independent school system serving grades K - 12
- Enrollment: 1441 (High School - 460)
- 2025 Graduating Class: 121
- High School Teacher/Student Ratio: 1/10

SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY

The University Laboratory School is one of the six schools operated under the auspices of the Louisiana State University College of Human Sciences & Education. This coeducational school exists as an independent system to provide training opportunities for pre- and in-service teachers and to serve as a demonstration and educational research center. Since the school is part of the LSU system, students are required to pay tuition. The school is located on the main campus of Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, a center for the petrochemical industry and a major deep-water port. Baton Rouge is the capital of Louisiana with a population of more than 600,000.

ACCREDITATION

ULS is accredited by Cognia, Cognia STEM certified, and the Louisiana Department of Education.

MISSION

“Total Effort in Every Endeavor”

The University Laboratory School community aspires towards total effort in every endeavor for maximum student achievement through the development, implementation, and demonstration of exemplary programs and instructional practices. Founded in 1915 as the University Demonstration School for the College of Education, ULS receives operating funds from the state through the Minimum Foundation Program, as well as tuition. The University Laboratory School utilizes five key functions in pursuit of its mission:

1. Provides an exemplary education for its students
2. Demonstrates a model educational environment
3. Serves as a center for educational innovation and research
4. Provides professional development opportunities for the state’s educators
5. Offers clinical teaching experiences for pre-service teachers
